Subject: Eid-ul-Fitr

To whom it may Concern:

This letter is to inform you that Friday, September 10th, 2010 (Depending on the Sighting of the moon) will be an Islamic Holiday known as Eid-ul-Fitr. This marks the end of the Holy month of Ramadhan, where Muslims around the world fast according to God's commandment, 'O you who believe, fasting is prescribed to you as it was prescribed to those before you in order that you may gain 'taqwa' (God-consciousness, piety, righteousness)' (Quran, Chapter 2, verse 185).

Eid is a holiday for Muslims all over the world, where prayer, visitations, food, gifts and fun are all part of the celebration.

Due to this holiday, we request that students/employees be excused from their school day/work day on Friday, Sept 10th, 2010 without being counted as an absence

We appreciate your consideration in this religious matter.

For any further inquiries, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
